

Ysgol Y Ddraig Goch

Croeso / Welcome

Welcome to the Y Ddraig Newsletter. I will be introducing this from September and will ensure there is a new Newsletter for every half term. This will allow pupils, parents and carers a chance to read all about our topic this term and any important dates we feel you need to know. It will be available on Seesaw and a printed copy will be given to all learners.

Any feedback is welcome, if there is anything you would like us to include please let us know!

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Diolch,

Mrs K Etches—Assistant Headteacher

Important dates for this half term—

26th September 10am (Main building) — Our Macmillan Coffee Morning. We will be hosting our cake morning again this year after last year being such a success. Please feel free to pop up and buy a cake or send money in with your child so they can bring some cakes home for you! All donations will be going to Macmillan.

Curriculum / Cwricwlwm

This term our topic will be 'Night at the Museum'. The learners at Ddraig will be given the opportunity to learn all about different times in history. They will look at fossils, forces and life cycles in Science. Discuss the Wild West, Dinosaurs and the history of flight in Humanities. Create 3D sculptures and Egyptian masks in Expressive Arts. Write fact files and read books all about history in Literacy. Cover key skills in Mathematics. And finally discuss what it means to be healthy and how to look after our body in Health and Wellbeing.

We can't wait to see what amazing creations the learners make this term!
